Newark Soldier Slain At Virginia Army Camp

Will Appeal, Counsel Says

by HARRY B. WEBBER

Detective Charles A. "Freddy" Barts was in Newark at twilight November 25th and did take $1,000 from Joe Waters and Marion Greenberg in a shakedown, a jury in Judge Daniel J. Brennan's Court decided about 8 p. m. Tuesday after being five hours.

The guilty verdict came like a shock to the group of Barts friends who stuck to him to the end and availed the vendor with him. Barts had been confident of acquittal.

Carl Abruzzese, defense counsel, announced he will appeal the verdict.

Barts' seven-day trial was featured by a virtual transplantation of Harlem leaders from New York to Newark including such celebs as Bill Robinson and Judge Anna C. Ross. The Barts defense took pains to bring Negro witnesses for Barts, possibly in fear that to admit Barts had friends in Newark might have made it difficult for him to get a conviction. On the other hand, many Newark leaders who have formerly lived in New York knew Barts in that city and could have been called.

The trial was climaxed Tuesday by calculations by Abruzzese and Assistant District Attorney Jerome L. Litvak.

Abruzzese called Marion Greenberg a clever witness who knew what she was doing when she testified that at many points in the alleged taxi drive of Marion and Barts to Newark to find Joe Waters that Marion could have escaped from Barts if she desired. There was another point than Marion's statement that Barts was given a thousand dollars, he asserted.

Abruzzese pointed out that Marion testified Waters was afraid to leave Jersey and come to New Jersey.

State Negates Barts' Alibi

by HARRY B. WEBBER

By Monday night the trial of Detective Charles A. Barts had reached a point where doubt was thrown on many of his contents.

Barts testified that on March 25 he was in and around the Grand Jury floor of the Criminal Court building to confer with Assistant District Attorney D. A. Robbins.

He then walked to the office of Robbins' secretary and there saw Robbins between three and four P. M. himself between three and four P. M. that day.

Barts himself was placed on the stand as a red hot witness by Assistant District Attorney Lissner and testified he was in Jersey City that afternoon.

Judge M. J. Shlussen, Jersey City assistant district attorney, detected a slight tremor in Barts' voice when he was asked if he was in Jersey City then.

Barts testified that on March 25th he took the 8th Avenue Subway up to the Silvers Dollar Grill at 721 St. Nicholas Ave., where he met with his partner until about 11:30 P. M. and then took a bus to the West 133rd Police station where

Pvt. Whigham Is Gun Victim

Private James Whigham of 44 Montgomery street, Newark, was slain in an accidental gun shooting at Camp Henry in Newport News, Va. Friday night, late.

His mother, Mrs. Susie Whigham and brothers, Albert Jr. and Charles, received word over the weekend of the 21-year-old soldier's mystery death but could not at first get any more details after calling up the camp.

Private Whigham's body was to arrive on Tuesday or Wednesday and be placed on view at Dwyer Funeral Home, 239 Norfolk Street.

Whigham entered the Army November 3, 1942 and visited home here October 14th. He was a graduate of South Side High School.

Pvt. James Whigham's body can be viewed after 2 p. m. Wednesday at Dwyer's Funeral Home.

The funeral services will be held Friday at 1 p. m. from the Church of God in Christ, 100 Broad street, Newark. Interment will be at the Fairmount Cemetery.

8 Day Furlough

Seaman Edgar Humphries arrived home last week on an eight day furlough. He was greeted by his mother, Mrs. George Humphries and family and fiancee, Miss Ida Cobb.

Seaman Humphries completed his basic training at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Illinois, and is now serving as a Petty Officer.

Visits Parents Here

Seaman Alfred M. Young, stationed at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, was home last week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Young of 310 Orange street, Newark.

The young naval lad returned to his base last Saturday.

Railroads Defy F. D. R. Order

WASHINGTON—Sixteen Southern railways Monday told the President's Fair Employment Practice Committee in effect that the agency is wasting its official breath ordering the railroads to cease discriminating against Negro employees.

The 16 carriers declared they would not obey the FEPC directives of Nov. 24 forbidding racial or religious discrimination. The FEPC was "utterly unrealistic" in attempting to solve delicate problems of inter-race relations in the Southern states "flatly." The railroads said in a joint letter, "is unconstitutional and illegal jurisdiction and power to issue the directives, and for this reason we say the said directives are without legal effect."

The action of the railroads only challenges executive order No. 8802 issued by President Roosevelt, which forbids contractors doing business with the Federal government to discriminate against employees or job applicants for racial or religious reasons.

The railroads charged that the FEPC was "utterly unrealistic" in attempting to solve delicate problems of inter-race relations in the Southern states "flatly."

They said the "we" group will not admit inter-race criticism of the exiled groups.

They said there is a lack of communication between one group and another, and consequent misunderstanding.

They said that educated Negroes are resenting America's caste system face of preachers of democracy.

They said individual weaknesses of exploited groups are applied by the FEPC to the entire unemployed group.

PART II

When President Eliot Lescot of Haiti sat down at the dinner table with President Roosevelt in Washington recently, he had a strong and close bond that existed between America's two senior republics—one white and one Negro.

Men were dreaming of liberty at Lexington and at Fort Au Prince in 1776, and the next, Fort Au Prince, was to prove to find where he met at Lexington—for that seat of freedom now taking in the form and shape of an enlightened humanity in this country of the common man.

Haiti, like Christopher, that Negro genius and statesman, fought to bring the day of the common man when he and hundreds of their Negroes fought under General Lafontaine at the battle of Ayiti for the independence of Ayiti.

Haiti's declaration of independence from France dated November 9, 1803, signed by Christopher and his other statesmen, Jean-Jacques Dessalines, might have inspired that classic speech on the people's Revolution and the Century of the Common Man delivered Vice President Wallace 140 years later.

"We will be inexorable," says that declaration memorized by Haiti's school children. "Perhaps even cruel, towards all troops who themselves, forgetting the object for which they have been fighting, have been fighting for us."

America may be a part of her future security to the future Haitian rubber industry. It's now the time for American Negroes to speak up for Haiti and see that it is not forgotten, especially in the interests of its Negro citizens. It's time for Negro Americans to speak up and remind this country not only how bad Haitian's fought so bravely but that this country must not let them today had not Toussaint. Overture stopped Napoleon at Haiti.

Napoleon had hoped not only to win the black Haitians fighting for their independence under the leadership of Toussaint, he had hoped to attack United States and to turn it to a French colony after marking Haiti off its slate.

He planned to do this by invading the United States from the then neutral Spanish colonies.

But it took a common man to stop a conqueror. Napoleon like Hitler, was able to subjugate one European country after the other.

When Napoleon's army went to Haiti, he got cut up as badly as Hitler's henchmen at Stalingrad.

This time, fifty thousand Frenchmen proved they could be wrong. That many lay dead in the hills of Haiti; the survivors were glad enough to take the body of their leader to France and Napoleon felt that he was lucky when he sold the Louisiana Territory to the young American Republic, doubling the area of the country and making it ten times richer than it was when he started.

Hollywood ought to stop making crackpot zombie movies about Haiti. It ought to hire Paul Robeson to do Toussaint on the screen.

seeking sensation—mouthing white people about a country built and perpetuated by their brothers.

We have to realize in this age when all people begin to realize their common kinship, that men and women of all colors can live together in peace. We get a clearer picture of this proud little republic of ten thousand square miles if we compare our Haitian brothers with the thousands of French speaking Negroes in Brazil, Argentina and portions of Southeastern Texas.

Most of Haiti's citizens are good, kindly farmers who ask you for a cup of the hot native coffee set on the table. They almost stand upright in it. They are good farmers when they can get good land on which to grow their principal crops—coffee, cocoa, and many other agricultural products.

Royal Crown Aide Aids War Effort

WASHINGTON — Calling the Senate action on the soldier vote bill, which would leave the franchise for service men, a "shameless legislative fraud," the NAACP has urged upon House leaders the passage of the original Waritory bill, HR 3436, "not the 'compromise version'" of the Waritory bill.

The Waritory bill, introduced by the French Revolution to satisfy his own greed for power, Haiti remained loyal to that Declaration, remained loyal to the French regime and agreed to be found in the French humanist cause, but struck out for herself as an independent Republic.

Today in Haiti, one finds that combination of France and Africa which made the one hundred and fifty million of the world's democracies. The surnames are French, but some authorities on language say that the Haitian speech has developed from the French foundation to such an extent that it must now be regarded as an separate tongue.

African idioms mix with the French to form a new literary medium which is being developed to express the African soul of Haiti, by such comedians as Dr. Price, Mars, the brilliant sociologist; Jacques Roumain, the celebrated novelist; and a group of poets who not only write about their suffering after the revolution, but also write of the joys of the coming new world in their books and in Haiti's constantly improving newspapers and magazines. It is highly significant that Haitian writers and scholars are among the most advanced in the country's African culture, still surviving generation after generation among the sugar and coffee workers back in the broad, ancient tombs.

House leaders McCormack and Martin were asked particularly to see that poll tax is waived on the ballotting by soldiers.

NAACP joined other organizations and individuals in denouncing the Senate coalition of southern Democrats and reactionary northern Republicans which passed the Eastland bill turning the whole matter of the soldier vote over to the states to regulate as they see fit.

ODB Gives Mary Civilian Awards

Army Service Forces Civilian Service Awards in recognition of six consecutive months of satisfactory service with the War Department—were made to over 4,500 employees of the Office of Dependency Benefits. Wednesday, December 8.

Brig. Gen. H. N. Gilbert, USA, Director of the War Department Emblems for Civilian Service, as master of ceremonies, on behalf of the assembled ODB employees. Five employees selected from each Division represented their respective groups. The ceremonies took place yesterday afternoon before the ODB concourse of nations.

The Emblems will later be distributed to the thousands of ODB employees throughout the building.

The initial ODB Civilian Service Award presentation was made by authority of the Secretary of War on Nov. 1, 1943, and on Dec. 1, 1943, which provides that awards may be made to civilian employees of the War Department for faithful and meritorious service.

Introduced by Major Denton H. Reed, officer in charge of the ODB Personnel Branch, General Gilbert said in presenting the awards:

"It is a matter of great satisfaction to me, and I'm sure it is to you, to see how many of you have recognized the importance of your vital war job. These ribbons of service, with their Army Service Forces insignia, stand as symbols of service on the home front. Further, I am assured ODB employees now will wear them as an assurance to millions of soldiers' dependents that ODB is always on the job."

While thousands of ODB employees received the award for Civilian Service, the men in the presentation, others are expected to receive the Emblem for Meritorious Service in the near future.

The higher civilian award for meritorious service may be given to 10 years of faithful and satisfactory service in the War Department; for exemplary performance of assigned tasks, for initiative in devising new and improved work methods, and for outstanding achievement in improving the morale of War Department workers. Other employees may be eligible to receive the Emblem for Exceptional Civilian Service presented to civilians for exceptionally performed, exceptionally meritorious work, within and beyond the call of duty. This is highest civilian award authorized by Army regulation.

It is estimated that almost 50 ODB employees have had 10 years or more of War Department service.

Applications for the first two awards are submitted by the ODB committee for Civilian Service to officers in charge of stab wounds, were placed on five-

Our Boys In Italy Cited For Bravery

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY, ITALY.—A resourceful Negro anti-aircraft battalion that accounted for two German bombers, even before it became the first American Negro combat force to land on European soil, has been cited by Lieutenant General Mark W. Clark, Commanding General of the Fifth Army, for "outstanding performance of duty."

The unit, the 450th Antiaircraft Artillery Automatic Weapons Battalion, already had the distinction of being the first Negro combat body to land in North Africa. These troops were aboard ships in Naples harbor when German-bombers began an attack on shipping massed in the bay. Aboard one vessel, the soldiers had been selected to man 40mm weapons that were part of the ship's armament.

Because of the position of the hulls aircraft, the main antiaircraft gunners of the ship could not be maneuvered to produce effective fire. An enemy bomber was picked up by searchlights and the American crew was soon pinpointing the target at the target. Three hits were observed, the last of which appeared to tear off the right wing of the Nazi plane. The bomber crashed into the sea.

On a nearby ship that was carrying supplies to the regimental equipment of the battalion, Master Sergeant Johnson Clark, 2670 West Vernon Highway, Detroit, Michigan, jumped into a deck-loaded truck and opened fire with a .50 caliber machine gun mounted on the truck.

The second bomber, struck by Clark's shots and other fire being put up from the ship, also crashed into the sea.

Thus, within a few moments, the Nazi troops accounted for destruction of two Nazi bombers while definitely weakening the enemy's raid on harbor shipping.

In commanding the Negro troops, Lieutenant General Clark declared:

"I am proud of the outstanding performance of duty of these soldiers in this battle of fire. Their conduct was excellent and reflects the training and discipline of their unit. The Fifth Army welcomes such soldiers."

Union Baptist Of Bloomfield Lauded For Finance Report

The column "Spotlighting the News" said last week that organizations raising public funds should make a financial report to the community. At the very time the column was written, the Union Baptist Church of Bloomfield, Rev. D. H. Smith, pastor, was placing an advertisement in the Herald News detailing just such a report on its recent mortgage burning rally.

The action by Union Baptist is significant that we herewith reproduce the report as an example to other churches.

Official report from Trustee Board, Mrs. Delores Jones, Secretary to Board, The Mortgage Burning Rally for the benefit Church had ended for this season with an amount that far exceeded our expectations.

Mrs. Mattie Jefferies, President of the Ladies Aid, Mrs. L. C. Smith, Pastor, $217.00; Mrs. C. W. Weddell, President of Flower Blossom Club, $127.00; Mrs. Minnie Morris, Vice President of Busy Bee Club, $119.50; Mrs. Maria Watson, President of the Constitution Club, $100.00; Mrs. C. Crockett, President of Trustee Board, $100.45; Mrs. L. Barnes, $100.00; Mr. A. Jonathan, $100.00; Miss Matilda Roy, $80.00; Bloomfield Savings Institution, $1,000.00. Report from Captains having less than $100, $1,001.08. Total $3,945.03.

As the result of an interview with the required representative of the church, with the officials of the bank, $1,000 was graciously donated toward the rally.

We wish to express our immense appreciation to each of you who donated to this worthy cause.

The Liberal Soul shall be made fat. May God bless you.

Through the untiring efforts of Rev. D. H. Smith, the spirit of cooperation among the members of Union. The Auxiliaries, and also the Board of Trustees of which Mr.

C. Crawford is president, are all aiding.

Sister Union, and may your spirit be consecrated by the power of Christian discipline so that the spirit of power and love may be uninhibited in its working there.

Asks Army Release On Jim Crow Issue

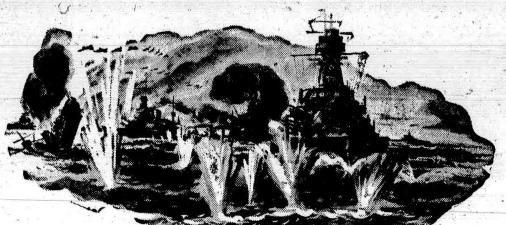

NEW YORK CITY—Winifred Lynn has asked the United States Court of Appeals to be released from the Army on the grounds that Section 1 of the Selective Training and Service Act violates the calling up of a quota of ninety whites and fifty colored, of whom he was one.

The contention that the call should have been for 140 persons rather than 120, and that Lynn was presented by Arthur Garfield Hayes of the American Civil Liberties Union. Mr. Hayes declared that "It is a man's right to be called in his turn and not to be white or black man to fill a quota."

UNSKILLED MEN! POLLAK NEEDS YOU TODAY!

Our Navy Clears the Way for Victory

Though enemy bombs may fall—and torpedoes shuttle through the seas—America's ships sail gloriously onward, unvanquished—clearing the lanes of the Axis menace to our forward-moving troops and supplies. It is not only to our vessels that we pay honor, but to the men that man these ships, the men that build them and that nation which sacrificed many essentials that these ships can sail the high seas to protect and safeguard our freedom.

POLLAK is making this appeal to patriotic, able-bodied American men to come to the plant, or U. S. Employment, 1056 Broad Street, Newark, and join the rank and file of your countrymen who are playing a major part in licking the enemy.

Proof of citizenship and papers of availability required.

On Christmas night, Saturday, December 25th, at the Y. M. H. A. Field Hall, corner of Broad and West, Newark, the Newark Couriers will be presenting "A Yuletide Fiesta". This affair promises to be the dance of the year.

These boys have some fine ideas for decorations on this date. The business manager of the Courier, in his infinite wisdom, has arranged a wide variety to be displayed on each and every table, plus some of the nice wreaths on the boxes and lots of other decorations.

Johnny Jackson and his orchestra have made many arrangements to "spice Christmas" for his vocalist, the boy with the Sienna hair, Bob Taylor.

The prologue they have for this affair is outstanding. "The true fellowship of mankind is the best gift of Christmas." This is the day of the Yuletide. It becomes the day of festivity and relaxation, a day of joy when everyone desires to extend Good Will to all."

Thus the Couriers have planned on this holiday, that friends will converge to exchange hearty greetings and good wishes.

"May all your Christmases be white" we would like to further add may all your Christmases be bountiful and gay."

So don't forget the club of the year, the Couriers. This date, the 25th of December, 1943, the dance, at the YMHA Field Hall, Newark, and gay company . . . gave us an attempt to start another week of fun . . . without murmur or complaint.

JERSEY CITY—Mrs. John Updegraff, of 50 Seider street, left last week for Benson, Arizona, to visit her son and daughter, Lieutenant and Mrs. Cobb. She will be gone for a month. The Cobbs are expecting an heir to the Updegraff fortune.

Letters from Readers

To the Editors:

If the Ministers of our church would do more in their community, after their Sunday service to help out civil leaders, such as Walter White and others, when Boys return from the battle field, we would find a better Democracy at work.

In the press and on the radio, we read and hear much about our boys fighting to preserve the American way of life. The Negro is on the front today, because he is the backbone of the American Flag and Stripes of America.

We find though, that in many cases, the American way of life has been and still is to practice discrimination. In many southern states, he is deprived of his right to cast his vote in the state in which he pays taxes.

Here in the north, the land of vast privilege, in such places as Montclair, N. J., where the Negro pays thousands of dollars in taxes, not one Negro is permitted to cast his vote in the state in which he pays taxes.

As Negroes we are willing to fight for our country and any race that is willing to die for his country, should be given the highest opportunity to live for that country.

Many opportunities have been kept from the Negro, on the grounds that he may seek to force social equalities. The wise among the Negro race, do understand that some form of the question is an excuse for, and enjoyment all those privileges, will come to those who wait.

To the Managing Editor:

I am a soldier in Uncle Sam's mightiest Army. My home town is Newark, New Jersey. My wife, Mrs. Iris May Wheeled is now residing in West Kinney Street same city. I am writing you these few lines to let you know how a soldier feels to be so far away from home. I'm not a very good writer, but I guess you can put two and two together and get a million miles to go.

I hear soldiers saying day in and day out that they would give a million dollars to be home. It is always talk about home here. It kind of cheers you up and then

Dear Mother of mine, look up; Love is strong as death, trust the war will be o'er,

And we shall part no more. Then we shall unite be.

To set up your little home,

Then I'll trust and pray,

Wait until the war is won.

When I am safely home.

BETHLEHEM — BAPTIST CHURCH, 587 North 4th street, Newark, REV. C. H. GLOVER, Pastor: — It has been some time since the Bethlehem news appeared in this column. The writer has been away, but upon his return Sunday, he found that all went well with Bethlehem and the church is progressing under the leadership of our pastor, Rev. Glover.

The Sunday School and B. T. U. are going nicely under the leadership of Deacon Albert Green and Miss Pauline Saunders.

The Communion service was very inspiring last Sunday. Everyone seemed to be filled with the Holy Spirit, though God for his part, this year, in the "Will Rally" was a success. More than five hundred dollars were reported. Among our visitors were Rev. and Mrs. Green of Elizabeth, brother and sister-in-law of Trustee Roosevelt Green. Pray for us and meet me at Bethlehem.

UNION VOCAL SINGING CONVENTION OF NEW JERSEY, Inc., L. M. WYLIE, President: — Last Sunday was another great day for the Convention. We all enjoyed a grand program at the Paradise Baptist Church, Orange street, Rev. R. M. Macdonald presiding. Personal services were held as usual. A splendid welcome address was delivered by Mrs. M. Jackson, and responded by the president, Mr. Wylie. He also rendered a very beautiful solo. Special solos were rendered by Mademoiselle L. Hunter and M. Duncan, Hattie Glenn, M. Jackson and Mr. C. Hutchins. Rev. J. D. MacDaniel of Vaux Hall gave some very timely remarks and presented Rev. C. C. Crooks, who sang a very inspiring message from Numbers 10:39. He took as his text "We are on a journey. Come with us!"

Other selections were rendered by the Convention and remarks by Rev. Jones, Rev. Meade and others. Personal services were held as usual and the spirit ran high. Our vice president, Mr. A. L. Gilford has been ill for a week. We hope for him and all our sick, a speedy recovery. Our deepest sympathy is extended to him. Alford chairman of our sick committee in the loss of his sister.

The Union Vocal Singers will render a program Sunday, December 19th, at the North Clinton Baptist Church, Oak street, East Orange.

ST. PAUL'S A. M. E. CHURCH, Ogden street and Central Avenue, Orange, REV. H. H. THOMAS, Pastor: — The annual day of "The New Jersey Maryland Circle" will be celebrated on December 19th, at the church. Our guest speaker for the morning service will be Rev. Dixon from Drew Seminary. At 3:30 p. m. we will have a literary and musical program featuring noted artists from various churches of New Jersey. Mrs.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear brother, Patrick H. Smith, who died suddenly last Monday:

So sad and sudden came the call.
Your sudden death surprised us all;
A sudden change in a moment fell
Without a chance to say "Farewell!"
We often sit and think of you
You bid no more the last farewell—
We don't see you die.
We only know you went away.
And couldn't say goodbye.
Signed by Bereaved Devoted Sisters

Lena Neely from Long Branch will be the mistress of ceremonies. The Junior Choir of Trinity Church, Long Branch, will render several selections.

Rev. Thomas will deliver the evening message. There will also be a short program.

Members of this circle are striving to make this New Year Day a great one.

Mrs. Ruth L. Raye is president; Mrs. Alma Griggs, vice president; Mrs. Cynthia Roberts, recording secretary; Mrs. Donald Sheldon treasurer; Miss Clara Garner, secretary of treasurer.

SHILOH BAPTIST CHURCH, Davenport avenue and North 10th street, Newark, REV. R. D. SPAEDER, Pastor: — Saturday, December 17th, at 10:45 a. m. the Sunday School opened to a most inspiring message from St. Matthew 25:19. "After a long time the Lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them." The subject was "The Day of Reckoning." He spoke of the Day of Judgment. Following the short talks, Mr. Reeves was then presented with gifts coming from the teachers, parents and friends of the Sunday School.

At the 11 a. m. service our pastor chose for his subject, "In debt to God?" It was beautifully delivered and enjoyed by all.

At 4 p. m., Rev. Pope of Jersey City preached for the missionary circle. At 6 p. m. B. Y. P. U. class began. At 8 p. m. our pastor chose for his text Job 16:19. "Also now, behold, my witness is in heaven, and my record is high." A cordial welcome always awaits us at Shiloh. Come always PILGRIM-BETHLEHEM BAPTIST CHURCH, Hudson street, Newark, REV. CHARLES HOWARD, Pastor: — Sunday was a beautiful Lord's Day. Sunday School convened at 10 a. m. with the usual attendance. The lesson was "Jesus' New Commandment" was really inspiring.

At 11 a. m. one of our own sons in the ministry of Pilgrim delivered the message which was "The Day of Judgment". Afternoon was the last Communion in the year and we really were glad to see such a large group of the older members out. Much credit is due to Mrs. Fannie Thomas and Mrs. Jackson. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, Mr. Goodwin also presented the superintendent with a purse.

Following the short talks, Mr. Reeves was then presented with gifts coming from the teachers, parents and friends of the Sunday School.

At the 11 a. m. service our pastor chose for his subject, "In debt to God?" It was beautifully delivered and enjoyed by all.

BETHLEHEM BAPTIST CHURCH, 458 York St., Jersey City, REV. P. C. JARRELL, Pastor: — The morning service was in charge of Deacon W. F. Singleton, who after the opening ceremonies, presented the pastor, who using as his text, "Behold, I send unto you the Spirit of my Father." And as he began his service, he stirred up the sermon. The attendance was good as well as the generous offering.

In the afternoon the church rendered services for the Mt. Pisgah A.M.E. Church, Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church, Mt. Pisgah Tabernacle, Mt. Pisgah Tabernacle.

Mr. Jarrell, who has been preaching an inspiring sermon.

The evening service consisted of what was known as Service on the Home Front. Many papers were read and solos rendered. On last Sunday evening the Missionary Circle, its members and friends, proceeded to the widows of the church. Sister James is president of the Missionary Club.

On Sunday afternoon, December 19th, the choir will render a program. Other local churches will participate.

On Sunday evening at 6:30 p. m. the B.T.U. will have its annual Xmas Service. Surprise gifts will be given to all present. Sister P. C. Jarrell is president of the B. T. U. and will be in charge.

MT. PLEASANT BAPTIST CHURCH, 215 West Kinney street, Newark, REV. A. W. THOMPKIN, Pastor: — Our services were well attended Sunday.

The pastor preached at the morning service from Acts 2:17 on "Speaking in Tongues". A great spiritual sermon.

Among the many visitors were Mrs. Johnson, Miss Moore and Mr. Johnson of Montgomery, Alabama, who are visitors in the city.

The Emergency Five, a musical group celebrated their anniversary there at 8 p. m. Some of the leading quartettes of the city, as well as quartettes from Peter-Passaila and South Jersey appeared on the program. It was a great success.

Rev. Thompson preached at night from St. John 5:3.

Sunday was the birthday of the pastor, so the Pastor's Aid, Volunteer Club and the Usher

Board are giving him a Birthday celebration at his home on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Molle Caron is in charge of the affair.

Rev. W. M. Armour will preach both morning and evening next Sunday.

215 GLEN RIDGE AVE., MONTCLAIR, N. J.

(At Montclair Center)

"The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined."

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon His shoulder: and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace." (Isaiah 9:2,6.)

Have you fully realized that the Lord Jesus Christ is the one only God for heaven and earth, the Divine Man, who came into the world to reveal Himself to us and to Redeem and Save the whole human race?

Have you clearly seen that it was the "mighty God," "The everlasting Father," the Creator Himself, who took on a body from the virgin Mary, and thereby fully revealed Himself as the only Divine Man, the source of everything truly human with us?

If this simple truth is seen then it can be acknowledged that God is truly one both as to essence and as to person, and that the Lord Jesus Christ is He. For then it can be seen that the Divine Trinity is not a trinity of separate persons or gods, but that the Trinity is in the Lord Jesus Christ alone, even as the Scriptures teach, "In Him dwelleth all the fullness of the God head bodily" (Colossians 2:9). For by the Father is meant His Divine Soul, which existed from eternity, and by the Son is meant the Human Body which He took on in the world and made Divine, and by the Holy Spirit is meant His Divine Love and Wisdom going forth from Him unto all men.

This means that all of our love and worship, and our prayers, are to be directed to the Lord Jesus Christ alone as the one God of heaven and earth, and that our salvation consists in shunning our evils as sins against Him, in order that we may receive His Love and His Wisdom.

In this truth lies the Divine significance of Christmas, and all of the True Christian Religion.

This is the one great truth of the Christian Religion, the "pearl of great price" in the light of which your understanding and love of God can be unified, and grow and increase to rule all things of your life.

This is a Free Public Lecture. All Are Cordially Welcome.

GAS—Just a digging and a fitting. A trekking and a pecking. Like the Hawk Hawk Hunch I'm out for lunch. Pops, along the quail the studs are hep insane—everyone is raving, because this jive sets them crazy for the latest in the centry between Tan Town's Bing Crosby and Frank Sinatra in technicolor, namely the ever-popular Joe Timmons, formerly of the Southern Sons, and Bob Taylor, one who has rocked so many female heads that he is becoming their pin-up boy. Tops.

There'll be whistling all over the country when "Whistling in Brooklyn" flashes across the American scene!

It has more laughs than there are jokes about Brooklyn.

Red Skelton is manager of the merrings with Ann Rutherford, Jean Rogers, Eddie Bracken, and Harry O'Neill, William Frawley and Sam Levene as decided aids to the fun!

Preview audiences laughed till they made the laugh-meter dizzy! "Whistling in Brooklyn" is the full treat of this merrier of seasons. Watch it at your theatre.

Leo says—I saw the preview and I haven't stopped laughing yet.

A bit of jive. P. S.: It's on your note book Johnny Jackson—the Young People's Fellowship Preliminary Frolic at YMCA, 158 Court Street, Friday evening, December 17th.

FASHION FLASH: — Ralph Smith, Esquire playboy, in chocolate brown single-breasted flannel, brown shoes, cream-colored hat, striped shirt, and a well-pleated brown umbrella. Also double-breasted lounge tip herringbone brown topcoat — unique. Miss Roselle Reid in grey salt and pepper suit, single-breasted, black shoes, black gloves. Silver Fox clubby jacket black hair trimmed in velvet. T. T. SOCIETY: — Yours Truly has received over two hundred letters from service girls and boys all over the world, and I want you to know that I wish you a MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR. YULETIDE: — 214 Waverly Avenue, The Yuletide Inn, 25th and Full Hall. Last year when the drew had become powdered snow and ice in the section of Newark called Tan Town, I broke from my do's to create by some powerful long-haired stuff to keep the place open. The girls were giving out with some B. S. and Burlesque. That unperfumed stuff is okay with me 'cause I'm strictly a cat that believes. Now this whole morning through I listened to the churches; was that the right thing? But music gives you aches around the heart. So cutting out for it's still the early bright—I carry my carcass down to Groves to talk up.

November 17, 1948.

Holiday: — I sure that this letter is or would be a surprise to you. I've just finished reading your column and it made me feel like I was home instead of way over here in Italy. It's much nicer than North Africa. The chicks are fine and very friendly. I've also picked up on the chatter of Piccolo Arabian, Spanish and Arabic Italian. I'm pretty corporal, has gotten the town to wondering. Home for good—so the chicks look for this lad, who is mad and bad. Mary Lee Parker: — I am looking sweet as a word "Honey." Cuban looks. Pops all the cats are digging those pin-up girls. Kinda cute, eh? Rool just a clean alone. Mellow yellows and teasing tans. Jack, cause I'm just a roach and like them. Jackie Gleason: — etc. Sunday eve. Willie Bryant: — etc. Sunday eve. Clarence (English Monocle) Hayes in the lead: Dobby Bolding and Glittering Life mad from McGraw-Hill. Pops: The Boston Plan machine rocked and squealed. Count McDaniel's doing great. New hit of slang angels to your baggag. Period.

CELEBRITY SPOTLIGHT: — The 100th anniversary of the wild as wild as the Piccolo Gaiety roller over in their seats at his ankles. Downtown's due for an Xmas gift for their imagination. Jimmy Durante, one grand guy, has closed the House of Mystery on December 21st. It will be a grand opening! They are renovating the place from top to bottom—ultra glamour. GROOVE BROWN

If dollars were lost because of the increased cost of travel.

POUS IGNORED
Jim Boule was not named on first All-State team selected by the Sunday Call. The best he has ever been is a halfback post on third team of Group IV schools. It is hard to understand how anybody who has seen the West Side in action could be guilty of an oversight. Boule was a competitor, a flashy back one of the most popular players in the scholastic ranks. He is an All-State to everybody but a sports editor of the Call who passed the call on this one.

JOE LOUIS

One wonders if the long interval between fights will do him any good. The Brown Bomber has been keeping in shape by boxing exhibitions in the various army camps throughout the country and aims to get into good fighting trim within a month.

This is all very reassuring at the fast remaining that Joe is fitting along for a fight.

It is true that no serious threat looms to his crown among the present crop of heavies but then one never knows. A young boxer with a sharp punch would be a fine addition to a champion's stable. Then, too, many a fighter has been beaten by Father Time when no human being seemed able to accomplish the trick. This latter possibility seems to provide the greatest concern of the day.

There are many of the champion's admirers who wish he would hang up his gloves when the war is over. They hate to think of the boxer being clubbed into submission by a fighter who would not have belonged in the ring with Joe when he was in his prime. This is always a very disturbing thought, but there is no reason to believe that Joe will retire without defending his title again. Joe needs money and protection again. When in old age and the only way he can get both is to fight for them.

BIG GATES

There is no doubt but that a fight with Billy Conn would probably draw a million-dollar gate but Joe just doesn't turn down that kind of money on entertainment. Joe invested money in a number of propositions and the war came along and cut off his income and left him in a rather bad shape. You can be sure he will do everything in his power to make as much of his fortune as possible and add to it while he can still shuffle around the ring and punch with some of his former power.

He can be certain that Mike Jacobs will map out some very definite plans for his return ticket one Tojo and Hitler yell. Uncle Mike will get his drum beating corps pounding out copy of the Bomber as of old and the boxing fans will be starved to see their idol back in action. Joe always gave his public a run for their money and one thing is certain, his absence from the ring has not caused him to lose any of his popularity or drawing power.

WILL GROOVY

Joe will surely miss Jack Blackburne as he prepares for his comeback for there was nobody who knew him better than he does now and made him what he is today. Old Chappy had a way of getting the best out of his pupil and the big question is whether Maxie Seaman will be able to do the same. We hope he can but I have my doubts.

One can depend on Roxborough and Black holding Joe with the same skill they showed before the war. They will probably give him a couple of heavyweight bouts before throwing him in the ring with a really dangerous opponent. But, as the heavyweight champion, Joe's title is at stake every time he fights so we will have to keep punching all the time. His managers may feel there is need to risk having Joe fight for points and sign him for the big cabbage as soon as he is available and in shape. You can bet that the Louis "brain trust" is doing as much post war planning as the heads of the Allied Nations.

Vulcan Bowl

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE, Ala.—After a rest period of several days the Golden Tigers of Tuskegee Institute won their second game of the season, 7-0, against Clark College of Atlanta, which will be played at Rickwood Field, in Birmingham, January 1, 1944. Tuskegee Institute represented the Southern Conference in the Vulcan Bowl game with Clark College of Atlanta, which will be played at 7th, Camp Chaffee, Ark.; 9th, Camp Joseph J. Robinson, Ark.; 10th Barsdale Field, La.

Another Christmas Basket Fund show will take place at S. F. on Dec. 13th, featuring Ray Chase and Lloyd Marshall to be promoted by the S. F. Chronicle.

Keep Punching —with Pedro Lombardo

Henry Armstrong will meet Jimmy Garrison at Portland on January 14th . . . Sammy Angott arrives here Monday to start training for the Ruffin go. And also, negotiations for a Broadway exhibition are being made between both the title claimants and each wants the champs' end if they put up their title. So that's that.

Just how valuable corner scenes were at the Cleveland Murray-Bivins shop, here is proof. Sal Gold came out of the crowd to do a great job on Bivins cut eye when the original second round ended.

Ray Orel lifting Murray's right arm to the shoulder, acknowledged to get the title's acknowledgement to what they thought won. The fan could not do this as Bivins was going to leave the ring the same instant as Murray. Just for the records, they thought Murray was the victim. Bill Bivins weighed 161. Harry Atkin did a great job in putting the all-in-fighting show, and they thought that Maxie Bergers performance against Chuck Hunter was a honey.

Caught the Baltimore show, and Joe Bivins arrived as a topnotch heavyweight in kayaking Bivins Walker.

Sgt. Joe Louis, and his boxing troupe, which includes Ray Robinson, Jimmey Edgar, Jackie Wilson, and George Nicklason, are listed for exhibition this week as follows: 1st Camp Gruber, Mo.; 7th, Camp Chaffee, Ark.; 9th, Camp Joseph J. Robinson, Ark.; 10th Barsdale Field, La.

Another Christmas Basket Fund show will take place at S. F. on Dec. 13th, featuring Ray Chase and Lloyd Marshall to be promoted by the S. F. Chronicle.

Barts Is Guilty

York to pay Bart's off due to possible trouble, but that Waters was not able to leave Jersey and go to New York to get the $10,000 from Marion or to go out on wild parties with her there.

The defense counsel assailed Marion's keeping of a Harlem apartment at 1805 Seventh Ave., another mystery apartment at 171 W. 141st St. The latter, he claimed, may have been financed by a powerful Harlem underworld figure without even Water's knowledge.

Abruzzese intimated that the Harlem and Jersey underworld had conspired to break Barts because Barts had been their enemy. He said the state's evidence indicated the mysterious driver who drove Marion and Barts here because there was no such cab driver. He commented on Marion's "fanciful imagination."

He pointed out that even if Barts had been driving down and one he need not have shown his hand but could have used Florida Beale and "Baba" Johns as fronts."

He finally asked why Benjamin Lassen, Bronx contractor from whom Marion and Rose Stephen had taken the $10,000 on March 9 was not produced as a witness by the state. He finally said that all witnesses were here had left New York on that day and not in Jersey.

The jury's verdict, however, indicates that the Barts' alibi defense failed, despite the care and detail with which it was executed by the defense.

Litvak, for the state, pointed out that Marion had no motive for harming Barts and that the extortion charge had come to light only as an accident incidental to May 10, 1947, when the two met. Litvak lauded Barts' boss, Lieutenant Malley, for having the courage to stick to the truth. It was Malley who seriously damaged Barts' defense by asserting Barts did not report for duty the night of March 25th at 10 p.m. when it was the time he said she returned from Jersey.

Litvak noted that Joe Waters proved a hostile witness but Emzy Waters and Harry Waters, Barts' both said Barts was in Newark that night. Litvak attacked Barts' equivocation on the stand. He said McDowdron David and Pope Billups with whom Barts said he was present at the Silver Dollar on the evening of March 25, were Barts' friends and lied for him.

Litvak also charged an "unholly alliance" between Barts and the underworld.

Judge Broman denied a motion to acquit made by the defense.

Barts has yet to be tried by the Dr. Carter Marshall, 198 Dixwell New York police department. He Ave., New Haven, Connecticut.

Street and came to her taxi where Joe Waters had paid the $10,000 graft, and he identified himself to Waters and Marion to the Orange colored police card.

Barts testified that he stayed at the 135th Station until after 7 P.M. and then went around the corner to Small's Paradise for dinner. After dinner he and Marion went to Harlem Hospital to interview a man shot some weeks previously named Graham. Barts saw him at Harlem Hospital before 3 P.M. that day and not after 8 P.M. And the man whom Barts identified as his wife, identified in the Uptown Club, said she was present when Barts called and it was early afternoon. She testified it could not have been after 8 P.M. as she was out at work at that hour and could not have been in the station that long.

Barts also testified that the Confidential Squad, operating from New York Police headquarters, had contacted him March 14 to do some work on the "Bou Case," Sgt. M. M. Bou of that squad at that time had some trouble in connection with his case was brought before the Grand Jury. Barts had testified to call as Assistant District Attorney Robert Lett.

At 10 A.M. Marion had told him he knew nothing of Barts working on his case. Deputy Inspector Enri Juhela, Patrolman John Silivian and Inspector Michael J. Murphy of the Confidential Squad also had been in touch with him. Barts had denied that he had been called to assist as Assistant District Attorney Robert Lett.

NEW JERSEY HERALD NEWSDINING ROOM OUTFIT GIVEN COMM. HOSPITAL

The Junior Auxiliary, on Thursday, December 9, presented to the Community Hospital six new red-top tables and 24 leather-bottomed chairs, costing $300, for the staff dining room. The dining room has been redecorated to match with the color scheme. The auxiliary has as its project the dining room and kitchen, and with the dining room now completed, they hope to complete the kitchen in the near future. At this meeting, the following officers were installed for 1948: president, Bernice Lett; vice president, Gladys Hargraves; treasurer, Mrs. Anna Gary; recording secretary, Mrs. Gladys March; business manager, Mrs. Pauline Fikes Donaldson; chaplain, Hester Brent; Esther Lett, Martha Brent, Alma Bryant, Bessie Fiske, Donaldson, Pauline Goldsborough, Ophelia Goldsborough, Bernice Irvin, Evelyn Inge, Lois Jones, Myrtle James, Lois Rhodes, Bernice Lett, Doris Morris, Bernice Maxwell and Gladys Hargraves; Gladys March, Christella Jones, Ann Gary and Georgia Howard.

But Barts stuck to his contention that Barts came near cracking Barts in the master of the blackjack board panels which detectives hung up in the station house to identify them. He pointed out that at that time he was not in the station house, but was in the station house to the 6 P. M. to 8 A. M. shift. That night, anyone of them could have hung up all three of the shingles, in the absence of the other two. Barts admitted this alone prior to the trial, but it was impossible unless the one detective on hand had the keys to the lockers of the other two.

Later on when Barts said he buried himself in the detective room from 6 to near 7:30 P.M. he made the statement that he went to his locker and got his shingles and pocketbook, but failed to make clear that he had first unlocked the locker. Litvak, however, did not clear up this point.

Before his lawyer finished his direct examination Barts admitted he had erred in saying he had never been in Newark until this date. He had been there twice before for questioning. He said he had visited Newark Police headquarters some years ago on a Newark York case.

On direct examination Barts testified that his accusation was that he "framed" someone from the underworld "to underworld" by causing "have caused the conviction of many criminals". They fear and hate me and have a strong desire to eliminate me from society.

McDonald, David, a New York lighting inspector, testified that Barts was the Silver Dollar the night of March 25th when Marion insists he was in Newark.

Detective Vincent X. Murphy testified in favor of Barts alibi, was a state witness. Litvak impeached the testimony of Barts by asking him if he had been questioned. He said he had.

Funeral services were held last Tuesday night, December 14, from Dabney's Funeral Home, Newark, after which the body was shipped to Kinsbridge, Virginia, his birthplace, where final rites and interment will take place.
